

W. P. WALTON.

6 OR 8 PAGES.

EVERY FRIDAY.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

For County Judge, JAS. WALKER GIVENS
 " Clerk, G. B. COOPER
 " Attorney, L. B. PAXTON
 " Sheriff, T. D. NEWLAND
 " Assessor, E. D. KENNEDY
 " Jailor, G. W. DEBORD

SENATOR VOORHEES, having proved his incompetency as a leader on the tariff bill, has turned his attention to the pension laws, which he proposes to make even more liberal and capable of being abused than the present, which are as liberal and as greatly abused as even the coffee cooler and bounty jumper could desire. With a deficiency staring the government in the face, this is certainly no time to increase expenditures even of the most urgent kind, and in proposing the bill he does, the Indiana Senator shows himself a demagogue of the worst stripe, padding as he does to a class which have certainly been amply provided for. It takes more than 60 per cent. now of all the revenues of the government to pay the 966,012 pensioners on the rolls, whose number has tripled in ten years and which exceeds the number of active soldiers in line at any time during the war. The old soldiers deserve much of the country, but there are a few others to be considered, who have borne in silence the load placed upon them by men who thus hope to keep themselves solid on the soldier vote, but there is a point beyond which they will not longer suffer it to go, and when they arise in their might they will drive the miserable time servers from place and power.

HON. W. C. OWENS is growing more personal in his speeches. At Versailles he referred to Col. Breckinridge as a dime museum freak whose public appearances are attracting crowds of the morbidly curious, the idle loafers and the bread and butter brigade. "Your present representative in Congress," said he, "has been at home recently and made speeches at Lexington, Paris and Langrange. In each of his utterances he has made the statement that for the past 100 years this district has been represented by men, but he might have added that only during the first 90 of these hundred years it was represented by gentlemen; that during the last 10 years the honor of his own country was by him led to the greatest shame in the history of the government." Where is Desha and Col. Stoll? Now is the latter's chance to show that he really means fight. His bluff as old man Wilson after the trial at Washington has never been regarded except as a vainglorious performance of a man who knew that his adversary would take no notice of his attack.

THERE is a possibility, we learn, that Mr. R. C. Ford, president of the Bank of Manchester, may become a candidate for State treasurer, in which event he will make it lively for those already in the race, for he has an extended acquaintance among those who know his worth and qualifications for the office. Mr. Ford began his business career as editor and proprietor of the Owen County Democrat, which he ran successfully for two years and then sold to Hon. E. Porter Thompson. Since then as banker at Owenton, London and Manchester he has developed marked ability as a financier and made much money for himself and associates. His own strength and that of his wife's family, the Garrards, would make him a most formidable candidate should he enter the race.

SOME nincompoop at Corbin sends out the story that Col. W. O. Bradley will make the race for Congress in this district against Gov. McCreary and the Louisville Times gives space to it. Col. Bradley's eagle eye, if fixed on anything except the almighty dollar, is centered on the governorship, which he has an idea he can capture. He knows he has none to wrest Congressional honors from Gov. McCreary, and he also knows that defeat in such a race will not help him in the other struggle. We do not speak by the card, but we can affirm that Col. Bradley will not run for Congress. Neither will any other man of note in the district. If McCreary has opposition, which we doubt, it will be by a nonentity seeking a little notoriety.

WE gave the esteemed editor of the esteemed Times a chance to apologize for a tirade on Mr. Cleveland, but instead of doing so he maintains what he first declared that the horse is 17 feet high, and adds that "since the tariff has been at the front the president has done nothing in behalf of its reform upon the straight lines laid down at Chicago, and has figured more conspicuously as a fisherman than as a tariff reformer." We do not know what Mr. Cleveland has done, but his public expressions, notably in a recent letter to a democratic club, have all been for tariff reform. It looks to us like it is the Senate and not the president, that is breaking faith in the promises of the democratic party.

Rev. R. G. Cava was orator of the day at the unveiling and dedication of the monument to the memory of the private soldiers and sailors of the Confederacy at Richmond, Wednesday, and said some things that will make the editors and orators of the North howl. In the course of his address he said, "I am not one of those who, clinging to the old superstition that the will of heaven is revealed in the immediate results of trial by combat, fancy that right must always be on the side of might, and speak of Appomattox as a judgment of God. Instead of accepting the defeat of the South as a divine verdict against her, I regard it as but another instance of 'truth on the scaffold and wrong on the throne.' Against the South was arrayed the power of the North, dominated by the spirit of Puritanism, which, with all its virtues, has ever been characterized by the pharisaism that worships itself and is unable to perceive any goodness apart from itself; and from the time of Oliver Cromwell to the time of Abraham Lincoln has never hesitated to trample upon the rights of others in order to effect its own ends." This is pretty strong language but the sentiment is endorsed by many who suffered by the lost cause. Among the old Confederates who took part in the exercises were Gens. Wade Hampton, Fitzhugh Lee, Rosser and others, and the ceremonies were as impressive as the parade was imposing.

THE editor of the Williamstown Courier, Mr. J. H. Westover, makes a touching appeal to his subscribers to settle up so that he can buy some clothes for the twins, with which his wife presented him this week. It is a mighty mean appeal, but there are delinquents mean enough to swindle their mothers-in-law.

THE Knoxville Tribune has a lengthy editorial on the Ashland district, which concludes with the hope, the time is past when a man who has lived in adultery, haunted brothels and tarried on deceit will be pardoned and retained in public life because he possesses a few showy and popular gifts. Ability does not condone immorality.

NEWSY NOTES.

—Owens says Col. Breckinridge "has no show and will not carry a single county."

—An addition to cost $52,528 is being built to the Lunatic Asylum at Hopkinsville.

—The Cincinnati Southern road laid off 50 men at Somerset on account of depressed business.

—The August meeting of the Pythians in Washington is expected to draw 20,000 Knights and visitors.

—The 29th annual meeting of the State Medical Society will be held at Shelbyville June 6, 7 and 8.

—The Hon. J. L. Crawford, of Newport, will be the republican candidate against Berry in the Sixth district.

—George Vogel, a grocer, was killed by a brick wall falling on him while he was tearing it down, at Henderson.

—At Shelbyville, O., Joseph Corwein pleaded guilty to stealing 14 chickens. The judge sentenced him to 14 months in jail.

—Tariff leaders think the Senate will finish with the tariff bill by June 15, when the House will act promptly on the bill.

—New York men of money will hold a convention to protest against the passage of the income tax feature of the tariff bill.

—A bill has been presented to the House for an appropriation of $150,000 for a Government exhibit in Atlanta and $50,000 for a building.

—Mrs. John Ellis, of Kenton, O., at tempted suicide by jumping into a well. The jump was not fatal and in a few seconds she was yelling for help.

—The gold receipts at the Denver mint in May amount to $506,923. In May, 1893, the receipts were $99,148, showing for the present month an increase of 411 per cent.

—A cyclone said to be 200 feet wide passed just to the north of Wichita, Kan., destroying a country church and overturning the monuments in the Kechocemetery.

—Desha Breckinridge says: "Father will not notice Owens' attacks and does not think there will be any trouble. He believes Owens to be a coward, and will not notice him."

—The railway telegraphers' election at Denver resulted in defeat for Grand Chief Telegrapher Ramsay, his successor being Walker V. Powell, of Wichita, Kan., the vote being 59 to 56.

—Dr. Godfrey Hunter, the republican who repudiated the benefits of democratic factional fights in the 3d and went to Congress till Goodnight beat him, will try his chances again this year.

—Judge Baker, of the Federal court at Indianapolis, has enjoined the striking Illinois miners from stopping or interfering with the coal traffic of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad.

—Ex-Justice Sutherland, ex-Boss McKane's lieutenant who came in and surrendered Monday, was Tuesday sentenced to two years and eight months in Sing Sing and to pay a fine of $500.

—Troubles never come singly. On the same day recently W. L. Shears, of Fayette, lost a fine colt, his little boy fell off the porch and broke his arm, and a daughter, who had been sent to a neighbor's for assistance, was tibly bitten by a ferocious dog.

—W. P. Fife, the "drummer evangelist," happily styled "The Moody of the South," will begin a series of union meetings at the Opera House in Cynthiana, Sunday, June 17th.

—A negro preacher who proposed to a number of negroes that they should seize several white women and carry them into the swamp near Palatka, Fla., was taken by a mob of whites and hung.

—Govs. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, McKinley, of Ohio, Mathews, of Indiana, and Jackson, of Iowa have expressed their willingness to serve on a board of arbitration to settle the coal strike in Pennsylvania.

—A deputy sheriff is under arrest at Cincinnati under the new law prohibiting a married man from making love to maiden ladies. It is the first case of the kind and the result is awaited with interest by the married mashers.

—A. J. Alexander, J. L. Amaden, S. H. Shouse, Warren Wiley, Lister Witherspoon, John A. Davis and Dr. Hart, all leading citizens of Woodford county and well-known throughout the State, sign a call for a mass-meeting to protest against Breckinridge's return to Congress.

—A train on the Wisconsin Central was wrecked near Milwaukee, the cars taking fire and resulting in a terrible loss of life. Four persons are dead and four others are missing, supposed to have been burned to death, and from 15 to 25 persons are injured, some of them fatally.

—Judge Bradley has overruled Breckinridge's bill of exceptions on the ground that the attorneys for the plaintiff had not been given the required three days' notice. As the judgment has already been entered, the only thing left now for the Pollard attorneys is to collect the $15,000.

—Prof. Benjamin F. Williams cut his throat with a penknife at his home in Maysville with suicidal intent, but was unsuccessful. He is about 50 years old, married and has a large family. He is a deacon in the Christian church and for 20 years has taught in the city schools. Poor health, despondency and financial worry are supposed to have caused the rash act.

—The C. & O. has just completed arrangements for the construction of lines in West Virginia that will open up the Piney creek and Guyandotte river valleys, bringing to market a coal field which the State Geologist estimates to contain two billion tons of coal, the aggregate vein in some places being 68 feet 11 inches in thickness. The land above the coal is covered with very fine hardwood timber.

—The body of a young girl was brought to the City Hospital, Louisville, by Dr. G. W. Gresham, of New Albany, who asked permission for a patient and then pretended to discover her death. A post mortem showed that the girl had died from the effects of a criminal operation, and the doctor was arrested and jailed on the charge of murder. The girl proves to be Minnie McDonald, of Gibson county, Ind.

—The Chesapeake and Ohio steamship Greenbrier left Newport News, Va., the other day for London with the following cargo: Twenty-four thousand eight hundred and eighty-three sacks of flour, 199 barrels glucose, 191 walnut logs, 8,000 pieces of lumber, 45 hogsheads of tobacco, 228 bags of bones, 1,100 pails of lard, 100 boxes of hams, 170 bales of hay, 135 tierces of lard, 35 boxes of crackers, 875 bags peanuts, 274 bags of corn, 1,511 sheep, and 455 beeves. The Greenbrier's cargo is valued at $190,000.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Josiah Bishop bought a lot of 125 hogs at 4 to 4½c.

—Alex Moberly sold to W. I. Herrin a small lot of butcher stuff at 2½c.

—W. J. Carson bought in Casey county six 2-year-old cattle at $10 to $12.50.

—William Moreland bought of J. M. Brown his lambs for present delivery at 4c.

—Ida Pickwick won the Decoration handicap at Latonia over Lazzarone and a field of fine ones in 1:59½ mile and six-tenths.

—A yearling brother to the race horse Domino brought $5,100 under the hammer in New York. A yearling by Himyar brought $3,100.

—Josiah Bishop sold to J. H. Bright his old wheat at 60c at his barn. He also sold to different parties a lot of corn at $2.50 at the crib.

—J. H. Baughman bought at Lancaster Monday the old wheat crops of A. C. Robinson, R. L. Hubble and others, over 1,000 bushels in all, at 5½c delivered.

—Buchanan, a Kentucky Derby winner, and one of the greatest sires in Kentucky, died at the Scoggin farm, after a sudden illness of inflammation of the bowels.

—The 30 thoroughbred stallions, broodmares and colts, belonging to R. O. Pate, sold at St. Louis for only $8,000. He lost $100,000 trying to introduce races in Mexico.

—Fifty-three head of thoroughbred horses, all save one being yearlings, were sold at Latonia at an average of $814. The four-year-old Sabine was sold to John Morris, of Louisville, for $2,500.

—A very large crowd attended the sale of Mr. W. M. Higgins, deceased, yesterday, which up to four o'clock had not been completed. Milk cows brought $20 to $40; calves $5 to $7; hogs averaging 120 pounds brought 5c. Farming implements and household and kitchen furniture sold well.

—J. H. Baughman & Co., have bought several crops of new wheat at 45c.

—At Gravesend in the Fort Hamilton Handicap, worth $10,000 to the winner and a snug sum to second horse, John Cooper, owned by E. C. Headley, of Lexington, and at 10 to 1 in the betting, won after a desperate battle in the stretch with Henry of Navarre, 4 to 1, the property of Mr. Byron McClelland, also of Lexington.

COMMONWEALTH'S DOCKET.

MONDAY, JUNE 4TH—FIRST DAY.

1	Com'th Ky. vs W. F. Clymer.
2	same vs Robert Whitley.
3	same vs Sam Dollins.
4	same vs Harry McKinley, No. 1.
5	same vs Same, No. 2.
6	same vs C. Marcum.
7	same vs John Mayfield.
8	same vs Jas. Vanhook.
9	same vs John Baker, &c.
10	same vs Andy Lee, &c.
11	same vs John Baker.
12	same vs Sam Baker.
13	same vs Alonzo Baker, No. 1.
14	same vs Same, No. 2.
15	same vs Wm. Stamper.
16	same vs John Warren.
17	same vs Wm. Alcorn, No. 2.
18	same vs Ide Austin, &c.
19	same vs E. M. Cole.
20	same vs Thomas Frye, &c.
21	same vs Louisa Gibson, No. 1.
22	same vs Same, No. 2.
23	same vs Same, No. 3.
24	same vs Green Guest.
25	same vs Arthur McGinnis.
26	same vs Tinsley Mershon.
27	same vs James Owsley.
28	same vs Odie Paul.
29	same vs Jordan Perkins.
30	same vs James Plummer, &c.
31	same vs Arch Stuart.
32	same vs W. M. Tinsley.
33	same vs Charles Wakefield.
34	same vs H. H. Wade, No. 1.
35	same vs Same, No. 2.
36	same vs Same, No. 3.
37	same vs Wm. Wade and Alfonso Richards.
38	same vs James Banks.
39	same vs Zed Bright.
40	same vs Joseph Coffey.
41	same vs J. H. Carter.
42	same vs Thos. Dalton, No. 1.
43	same vs Same, No. 2.
44	same vs A. C. Dunn.
45	same vs Curtis Gover.
46	same vs E. W. Graham.
47	same vs P. W. Green, No. 1.
48	same vs Same, No. 2.
49	same vs Mrs. J. T. Helm.
50	same vs Geo. Pennington.
51	same vs Alfonso Richards.

TUESDAY, JUNE 5TH—SECOND DAY.

1	Com'th Ky. vs J. W. James, &c.
2	same vs J. W. James, No. 1.
3	same vs Same, No. 2.
4	same vs Same, No. 3.
5	same vs Same, No. 4.
6	same vs Same, No. 5.
7	same vs Same, No. 6.
8	same vs Same, No. 7.
9	same vs L. & N. R. R. Co., 1.
10	same vs Same, No. 2.
11	same vs Jeff Luttrell, &c.
12	same vs Jas. McGill.
13	same vs Wm. Mullins.
14	same vs Mack & W. Moore, 1.
15	same vs Same, No. 2.
16	same vs Mack Moore, No. 1.
17	same vs Same, No. 2.
18	same vs Same, No. 3.
19	same vs Same, No. 4.
20	same vs Same, No. 5.
21	same vs Caleb Rout.
22	same vs Len Shannon.
23	same vs Same, &c.
24	same vs Same, &c.
25	same vs Same, &c.
26	same vs John Traylor.
27	same vs Stephen Vanderpool.
28	same vs Same.
29	same vs James Wickersham.
30	same vs Same.
31	same vs Winfield Ware, &c.
32	same vs Wesley Martin.

A Philosopher.

Col. Hahdupp—What are you laughing at, uncle?

Uncle Mose—I've laffin' t' t'ink I hadn't got no job, sah.

Col. Hahdupp—I don't see the point. Uncle Mose—De pint am jes heah, sah. Ef I had a job I'd eeder be gittin' fired or expectin' t' be gittin' fired, or gittin' mah pay reduced, an' I'd be perfectly misabul.—Judge.

Not at All Polite.

Pillies—That young Dr. Sagely is a queer person.

Squills—How so?

Pillies—Mrs. Hyswelle called him in to prescribe for one of her indispositions and he told her there was nothing the matter with her and proved it. And yet he wonders why he doesn't get on better with his rich patients.—Chicago Record.

He Know Her.

Mrs. Fidget—Now, Tommy, I want you to be as quiet as a mouse! I'm busy!

Tommy (scoornfully)—Huh! If I was a mouse, you'd jump up on a chair and yell!—Truth.

His Reputation.

Barry—I'm going to have a great jolce at old Skindint's expense in a day or so.

Garry—You'd better not. He won't pay it.—Detroit Free Press.

Little Things Tell.

If you would know for sure her age, Ask not herself or mother; Just make a quiet pilgrimage Unto her little brother.

—N. Y. World.

A Misunderstanding as to Time. Dedhedde—Will you lend me five dollars for a couple of days?

Wiseley—No. I might need it, you know, next year.—Chicago Record.

VALUES

Are what the people are seeking.

Hundreds of choice values this week in the leading lines of superior staples and fancy Dress Goods. Quality and price as we combine make every item in our stock a value. We are not excelled in value given. Let every one come and see our offer to value seekers this week.

THE GREAT SALE

Of Men's and Boys' Suits. Our trade on Clothing for the past few weeks has been very large, but the assortment is so vast, the stock of such magnitude that every line is still complete, so much so you could pick at random and not go wrong and certainly not go amiss on prices.

SUITS!

Valued at $14 and $15, $16 and $18 will be sold for $9 to $11. In fact, we have anything in the way of Men's Clothing from $3 a suit up. Remember our line of SHOES!

Is complete and we can sell them to you cheaper than any House in Stanford.

CALL FOR A TICKET

When you make a purchase, for one of the handsome Pictures to be given away.

LOUISVILLE: STORE,

STANFORD, KY.,

A. URBANSKY & CO., Proprietor

T. D. RANEY, Manager.

TRUNKS, VALISES, STRAW HATS

—SUMMER—

Neckwear & Underwear

—AT—

H. J. McROBERTS.

—H. & G. RUPLEY, &—

Merchant Tailor,

Is Receiving His

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS.

Goods Warranted and a Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Give me call.

THE STUDEBAKER WAGONS,

—AT—

REDUCED PRICES.

Brown's Cultivators and all Farm Implements at prices to suit the hard times.

J. K. VANARSDALE,

GLASSWARE

QUEENSWARE,

CHAMBER SETS,

DINNER SETS, &c.

Every thing you can think of in the Fine Chinaware line. Call and examine and get prices.

FARRIS & HARDIN.

Stanford, Ky.